Specificity/Sensitivity	HA-Tag (C29F4) Rabbit mAb (Biotinylated) detects exogenously expressed proteins containing the HA epitope tag.
Source / Purification	Monoclonal antibody is produced by immunizing animals with a synthetic peptide containing the influenza hemagglutinin epitope (YPYDVPDYA).
Description	This Cell Signaling Technology (CST) antibody is conjugated to biotin under optimal conditions and tested using COS cells transfected with HA-tagged protein.
Background	Epitope tags are useful for the labeling and detection of proteins using immunoblotting, immunoprecipitation, and immunostaining techniques. Because of their small size, they are unlikely to affect the tagged protein's biochemical properties.
	The HA tag is derived from an epitope of the influenza hemagglutinin protein which has been used extensively as a general epitope tag in expression vectors (1).

Species Reactivity	Species reactivity is determined by testing in at least one approved application (e.g., western blot).
Western Blot Buffer	IMPORTANT: For western blots, incubate membrane with diluted primary antibody in 5% w/v BSA, 1X TBS, 0.1% Tween@ 20 at 4°C with gentle shaking, overnight.
