Specificity/Sensitivity

GAP43 (D9C8) Rabbit mAb recognizes endogenous levels of total GAP43 protein. Low levels of non-specific nuclear labeling may be observed by immunocytochemistry (ICC).

Source / Purification

Monoclonal antibody is produced by immunizing animals with a synthetic peptide corresponding to residues surrounding Lys30 of human GAP43 protein.

Background

GAP43 is a nervous system specific, growth-associated protein enriched in growth cones and areas of high plasticity (1). Phosphorylation of GAP43 at Ser41 by PKC is regulated by intracellular Ca²⁺ and affects the ability of GAP43 to bind calmodulin (2,3). GAP43 is integral to growth cone formation, neurite outgrowth, and the development of a functional cerebral cortex (4,5). Aberrant GAP43 expression can be seen in patients diagnosed with schizophrenia and Alzheimer's Disease (6,7).
