Specificity/Sensitivity

ARFGAP1 (D9A4V) Rabbit mAb recognizes endogenous levels of total ARFGAP1 protein.

Source / Purification

Monoclonal antibody is produced by immunizing animals with a synthetic peptide corresponding to residues surrounding Thr338 of human ARFGAP1 protein.

Background

ADP-ribosylation factor GTPase activating protein 1 (ARFGAP1) is a Golgi-localized protein that regulates vesicle formation and membrane trafficking (1). ARFGAP1 initiates cargo selection and COP1 vesicle formation by stimulating GTP hydrolysis of ADP-ribosylation factor ARF1 (2). This GTPase activating protein initiates vesicle transport by coupling vesicle formation with cargo sorting (3). ARFGAP1 plays an active role in the Golgi-to-ER retrograde, intra-Golgi, and trans-Golgi trafficking networks (1). Research studies indicate that ARFGAP1 can act as a GTPase activating protein for LRRK2, a large multifunction protein whose genetic mutations are associated with Parkinson's disease (4). ARFGAP1 regulates GTPase activity and promotes the kinase activity of LRRK2, which suggests some potential as a promising target for study of LRRK2 mediated neurodegeneration (4).
